In order to save expense to the county and delays in trials Judge Wright very properly directed the Sheriff to send to Payson, in Tonto Basin, for Mrs. Gladden who is a witness in the Blevins' case, and who was subprenaed, though she did not put in an appearance.

A. B. Lambson was indicted last torney, dismissed.

Mr. J. C. Martin, of Prescott, editor of the Journal-Miner and manager of the Arizona Publishing Company, is visiting St. Johns and made a fraternal call on the Her-ALD. We are always glad to meet members of the press gang, and when they come in our midst we welcome their coming.

Judge A. F. Banta, of Holbrook, the pioneer journalist of Apache county, ex-member of the Legislature, ex-Probate Judge and ex-District Attorney, well known to all old Arizonans, is a visitor at the county seat, where he meets a multitude of old friends.

Col. J. F. Wilson, of Prescott, a member of the law firm of Wilson & Norris is visiting St. Johns for the first time. The Colonel came to this Territory from Arkansas the practice of law at the capital. He is regarded as an excellent lawyer and a valuable accession to the bar of the Territory.

Judge Wright made a most exthe grand jury. His experience on similar bodies enables him to facilitate business, and his uniform courtesy and urbane deportment cause the workings of the grand inquest to move like machinery freshly lubricated.
